NATION LIBRARY WEEK

National Library Week will be observed April 3rd to 9th, 1960. The theme is "OPEN WONDERFUL NEW WORLDS - WAKE UP AND READ!"

What is reading? Something much more than words on a printed page. It is knowlege, gathered and distilled through the minds of great thinkers. It is magic - the magic of creative imagination, weaving people and events into the fabric of a novel or a fiction story. It is today, as it happens in your newspaper. It is ideas, as they jump out at you from the pages of a magazine. It is the restless expression of all the forces at work in the world we live in.

Reading is something new and something old, leaders. In concluding her talk, the guest speaker cited that the satisfaction gained from knowing that the leaders are doing a tremendous job working with girls 7 to 9 years of age is repaid tenfold. The program concluded with a filmstrip showing the life of the founder of Girl Scouting, Juliette Gordon Low.

Mrs. Madeline Arruda, chairman for organizing the Brownies, told the members that 36 girls have signed up for Brownies. Leaders will be Mrs. Eliott Saunders, Mrs. Henry Tavares, Mrs. Donald Jenkins, Mrs. Russell Lawrence, and Mrs. Arruda. Needed is a leader in the East Rochester section, and anyone wishing further information may contact Mrs. Joseph A. Chamberlain, P-TA president, or Mrs. Arruda.

It was further noted that girls joining Brownies do not need a uniform. P-TA members voted to purchase two handbooks for the leaders.

Members voted to donate $15. to Webber-Fiske Scholarship fund, and also voted to change the date of the April meeting from April 18th to the 25th because of vacation week.

Appointed to serve on the nominating committee from the executive board were Mrs. Nelson West and Mrs. Jenkins. Appointed from the floor were Mrs. Arthur Kenney, Mrs. Stephen Lawrence, Mrs. John Hayes and Mrs. Peter Balzarini. "HARVEY" AND THE HORNBLOWERS

It is rather ironic that in this season when rabbits are reputed to lay eggs that the Hornblowers of St. Gabriel's Church of Marion produced a six foot rabbit which most certainly did not. "Harvey", the whimsical comedy by Mary Chase, was in good hands in Marion last week-end. The play, directed by Ann Eaton, was wonderful fun all the way and left the audience laughing. Elwood P. Dowd as created by Edwin V. Babbitt, Jr. was, to put it simply, great. In an extremely long part as the friend of Harvey, Mr. Babbitt was appealing and funny. Geraldine Schoeffel played Veta Louise Simmons, Dowd's sister. Her part was also very lengthy and was created on the style of Marion Lorne and very funny. In the scene where she had been mistaken for a complete screwball and gone through the treatment at the asylum, she certainly looked as if she had. Her daughter, Myrtle Mae Simmons, played by Susan Roche, was a good characterization. Susan has taken part in many of the Hornblowers' productions and is a charming comedian. Dr. Davis Gallison, playing a moronic strong

Mrs. Chamberlain read a thank you note from Mrs. Katherine Blair's Grade 4, winners of the Valentine party. Grade 4 had the largest number of parents joining the P-TA during the membership drive. The president announced that the P-TA has a membership of 93. Also read was thank you note from a recepient of a Christmas basket.

Read were invitations to attend Culturama, sponsored by the Lakeville Industrial and Development Commission and the office of Governor Foster Furcolo; a statewide high school services workshop to be held at Armand's Beacon Terrace, Framingham, April 2nd, and District 2 conference to be held at Keith Junior High School, New Bedford, April 26th.

Members voted to attend the District 2 conference, and volunteering to accompany the president were Mrs. Harry A. Brown, Jr., second vice-president, and Mrs. Edward Swanson, corresponding secretary. Anyone wishing to go and desiring transportation is requested to contact Mrs. Chamberlain. There is no charge to attend this meeting. Members felt the other two invitations did not apply to the group at present.

man of an asylum attendant, really proved himself an actor of talent and had the audience in the palm of his hand. Also seen in the production were Peg Dyer as Mrs. Ethel Chauvenet, Katheryn Babbitt as Ruth Kelley, R. N., William Bradford as Lyman Sanderson, M.D., Dr. David MacFarlane as William R. Chumley, M.D., Marjorie Dyer as Betty Chumley, Rev. Donald Gardner as Judge Omar Gaffney and Robert Talbot as C. J. Lofgren.

The play Harvey proves many things. One, that there is something mighty interesting about unihibited people. Two, screwballs can be a lot of fun. Three, that comedy makes some of the most enjoyable theater seen. In the hands of the Hornblowers the comedy always provides a sparkling evening's entertainment. There is, in this kind of stage production, an element which no canned production, however good, can provide. The only truly live productions occur on the

Grade 8 may obtain their goal financially.

Mrs. Brown mentioned the possibility of the P-TA meeting some other night than the third Monday of the month. She noted that the Board of Selectmen, town clerk, tax collector and treasurer, Finance committee all meet on Mondays, and if another night could be chosen maybe there would be even a larger attendance of parents. The president noted the by-laws state the P-TA shall meet on that date and changing of by-laws would be involved. Members were requested to think it over and bring in suggestions at the next meeting.

A flowering azalea plant flanked by St. Patrick's green candles in crystal holders highlighted the refreshment table decorations. Refreshments of assorted squares, filled cupcakes and petite cream puffs and coffee were served members and guests. Chairman was Mrs. Kenney and she was assisted by Mrs. Isabella Correia, Mrs. Shirley Hartley, Mrs. Mona Norton, Mrs. Margaret Doane, Mrs. Helen Baker, Arlene Nolan and Albert Duseault.

We travel a good bit this week to a beach in Venezuela. Mrs. Walter Wood of Mattapoisett recently returned home from a vacation there. She brought the photo from which this painting was done. This beautiful beach lies on the other side of a central mountain range dividing Venezuela. The other side is heavily populated and very dry. On this side, the mountains trap the rainfall coming from the ocean creating lush, tropical vegetation. As travel becomes faster and cheaper, this country may well become a major tourist resort, but at this time the magnificent beaches lie almost deserted in unspoiled beauty stage, created at the moment in sympathy and in tune with the audience. In a play where the players are people known to the audience an extra dimension is added. It is a delight to see the skill with which these well known people change their entire character to become, for the moment, a new and fresh personality. Through the magic of the medium they transform themselves, change time and place and take the entire audience into a completely new and, in this case, a zany world.

Many thanks to all who took part in the production of Harvey. It was a evening which will be recalled often with great pleasure.

SPRING FASHIONS SEEN IN MATTAPOISETT

The stage of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church parish hall was transformed into a beautiful garden setting last Tuesday night for the fashion show, "Silhouettes of Spring", sponsored by the Mattapoisett Woman's Club. Forsythia, pussy willows, daffodils and red geraniums against a background of greens and a gray garden wall decorated the stage. A white garden bench and bird bath were also placed on the stage.

The fashions, shown by Cherry & Co. of New Bedford, featured everything from sports wear, daytime, afternoon and evening wear including evening gowns. Also shown was a waltz length chiffon nightgown in a beautiful shade of lime green with matching pegnoir, modeled by Mrs. Dean Doran.

Reds, the neutral shades and the ever popular Spring color, navy, are being worn by the fashion wise woman this Spring, noted Mrs. Henrietta Waite, the commentator. She also noted that bold plaids are very popular this year. Mrs. Waite was dressed in an apple green sheath, fur stole and flowered hat.

Models, all members of the Woman's Club, were Mrs. Doran, Mrs. Harry Locke, Mrs. Joseph A. Kobak, Jr., Mrs. Howard Peterson, Mrs. William V. Knapton, Mrs. Judah Humphrey, Mrs. Thomas Renahan and Mrs. Orum Kerst.

DR. FRED C. SCHWARZ TO SPEAK IN DARTMOUTH

The American Heritage Committee is happy to tell you that they have arranged for the appearance of Dr. Fred C. Schwarz at the Dartmouth High School, Tuesday, April 19th, at 8 P.M.

Born in Brisbane, Australia, Dr. Schwarz is one of the outstanding world authorities on Communism, having been a close student of the Red aims, mentality and tactics since his college days.

His knowledge has been gained, not only from the study and analysis of Marx, Engels, Lenin et al, but through travel and on the spot personal observations of people under dictatorships and of dictatorships in the

Dr. Schwarz realizes and recognizes the perils of the Communist menace to the institutions of our Free Republic and will point out clearly and concisely the various aspects and dangers of the "creeping socialism" which has been eating away bit by bit at our National Freedom for the past thirty odd years.

He has the rare distinction of having been invited to testify before, and give his views to, Committees of both the House of Representatives and the United States Senate.

Time is running out, but we can still preserve our Constitutional rights and liberties if we are informed and act accordingly.

After his address, Dr. Schwarz will answer any questions you may wish to ask.

Will you take the time and make the effort to attend this meeting?

For tickets, please contact chairman of the committee George G. Smith, WY 4-0735 or Mrs. Bette Ashworth, WY 4-1812.
